The Berkshire Artists Studio Tours are a great opportunity to learn the processes of local artists in the location where they create! See the processes, equipment, and the tools they use! Get your questions answered about how artists work, their inspiration, and their paths to becoming artists. Artwork will be available for sale by each individual artist in a range of prices. A portion of each sale will go to The Guild of Berkshire Artists, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates members and the public about art and contributes to the quality of life in the Berkshires.
